

Season 2 Episode 2

To Kill an Ivan

Ivan, Safron, Dirk, Keith, Grand Master Augi, and several more of the Ultraverse Monks are at a fancy ball where drinks are served and luxury foods are served. All the monks sit behind a large counter. Ivan said, "What's the point of all of this?" Augi said, "We are the Ultraverse Monks and we want to make a good name for ourselves to these people." Ivan said, "Who are, 'these people'?" Augi said, "They are the rich people of the Ultraverse. They are investors and they often choose who to invest in. We need new technology and new gadgets all the time and those are quite costly in today's Ultraverse. If we can make a good name with these investors, they may decide to invest in us." Ivan said, "I guess that makes sense." Safron said, "This also gives me more time and an excuse to hang out with you." Safron kisses Ivan. On the upper balconies, old ladies position sniper rifles at the balconies and they aim them at Ivan. The lead old lady has a communicator and she activates it. She said, "Do you have locks on Ivan?" All the old ladies say, "Aye." The lead old lady said, "Good." She locks onto Ivan and they all pull the trigger at the same time.

Ivan grabs a chalice filled with a purple liquid and he moves his head and he drinks from the chalice. All the bullets hit the chalice and the chalice is shattered. Ivan said, "What the..." All the monks look up and they see the old ladies with the snipers and they are retreating. Keith gets a sharp eye on them and Keith said, "They are not getting away with this." Keith runs up the stairs and he gets to the hall that leads to the upper balconies. He sees the old ladies there with their sniper rifles. Keith draws his cyan bladed sword at them. Keith said, "Stand down and unarm yourselves and you will be shown leniency." The old ladies ignore Keith and they push him aside. Keith runs and jumps in front of the old ladies and he begins to battle with them. He slashes his sword at them and one of the old ladies grabs onto Keith's blade and she lifts up the sword with Keith still gripped onto it. She throws Keith to the side. One of the old ladies knees Keith in the crotch. The old ladies walk down the stairs and there is chaos in the ballroom as people run around and freak out. Keith gets up and he jumps off one of the balconies and he uses his sword to brace his fall. He stops the old ladies at the entrance. Keith said, "This time, you are outnumbered." Keith takes out his sword and several other monks take out their swords. They go to fight the old ladies. One of the old ladies punches a monk in the face and he falls to the floor and becomes useless. Another old lady grabs onto two of the monks and she smashes their heads together.

Keith tries to fight them off but they slap Keith in the face with powerful slaps and they leave Keith spinning. The old ladies leave behind a pile of beat-up monks and they dash outside of the place.

Ivan, Safron, Dirk, and Keith are in Augi's office where Augi sits behind his desk. Ivan said, "I know people have tried to kill me before but why would it be old ladies? What do they have against me?" Keith said, "They were likely to be hired assassins that were paid by someone to murder Ivan." Dirk said, "Why would someone pay old ladies to murder Ivan? I am sure there are plenty of assassins in the Ultraverse that are far more worthy." Augi said, "Don't judge a book by its cover. I knew a lot of Ultraverse monks that were some pretty tough fighters and they would be well over a century old for what Keith and Ivan would understand. I will have security beefed up around the monastery and Ivan's house. Ivan is no longer to be left alone until we find out who these old ladies are. I am placing Keith as the lead commander of security of Ivan's protection until we find these old ladies and find out what their deal is."

Ivan is taking a shower in the monastery shower room. Ivan doesn't notice but one of the faucets is removed and the tip of a sniper sticks out of it and it is aimed at Ivan. Ivan moves around as he washes and the sniper rifle is having trouble locking onto Ivan. Ivan uses a bar of soap to wash himself and he accidentally drops it. Ivan stays put while he picks up the soap. The rifle locks onto Ivan and it shoots at him and Ivan slips on the soap and falls over and the shot misses him and it hits the wall and breaks part of the wall. Keith jumps in the shower room and he sees a hole in the wall. Keith looks at a technical map of the monastery and he looks to where the hole leads. Keith takes out his communicator and he said, "I need a monk team down at section 2B right now." Keith and a group of monks go to that section and they see the door to the controls for the shower room. They enter the section and they see it is deserted and they find the hole where the sniper was. Keith said, "I set up alarms and traps all over the monastery. How could they have gotten through this undetected?"

Ivan dries off with Safron and Dirk at his sides. Keith and Augi look over security footage. Keith watches the footage and he sees the old ladies enter through a back door and they somehow walk through the halls of the monastery and they find the shower control room and they place their sniper in the wall and they fire and they leave undetected. Keith said, "How could we have missed something like this? I set this to trigger an alarm when someone that is not a registered monk comes through." Safron said, "The thing must have thought they were registered monks." Augi said, "It may not be safe at the monastery. I still want you to protect Ivan at all costs. I need you to stand by Ivan at all times. Ivan is going to stay home now and you are going to stand next to him and guard him all the time. I will send other security monks to patrol Ivan's house for the time being. I also want you to figure out who these old ladies are working for. You are good at figuring things out and you should be able to track them down.”

Ivan is heavily guarded by monks and he is riding in a metal container. The metal container is connected to Ivan’s house and Ivan is brought into his house and Keith is at his side. Keith said, “I was ordered to stand by you at all times. At the same time, I am supposed to find out who these people are. Is there anything in your yin-yangite books that mention old ladies that would try to kill you?” Ivan said, “No. I have read all those books over and there is no mention of old ladies. It wouldn’t matter anyways because all those books are a load of bullcrap.”

That night, Ivan sleeps in his bed and Keith sleeps on the floor on a cot. The old ladies see the monk guards and they hide behind a tree. They climb up the tree and they group at the top of the tree and they make the tree bend downwards and they walk across it like a bridge and it somehow stays in the blind spots of the monk guards. They open the window and they climb into Ivan’s bedroom. They aim their guns at Ivan’s head and one of them accidentally clicks their gun. Ivan and Keith wake up and Keith cuts their guns in half with his sword. Keith said, “What is your deal?” The lead old lady said, “Back off you little fool.” The old ladies fight off Keith and they smash him into the wall. Ivan yells, “Help!!!” The old ladies take out sharp jagged swords and they aim them at Ivan. Ivan gets overwhelmed and he turns into his yellow and green yin-yang mech and he has a sword as one hand and an arm cannon as the other. The old ladies go to fight Ivan and Ivan smacks one down with his sword. Ivan blasts at them with his arm cannon and he hits them but they have some kind of shielding that blocks the attacks. Ivan tries to slash one of them down the middle but it does nothing. Ivan still attempts to fight the old ladies and Keith goes to his watch and he said, “Emergency. The old ladies are here. Ivan needs backup.” Monks pour into Ivan’s room and they arm their swords at the old ladies. The old ladies jump out Ivan’s window and Ivan grabs onto one of their legs and keeps her there. The old lady that Ivan has a grip on yells, “Help me!!! I feel my chest crushing.” The lead old lady said, “I’m sorry but we are going to let you go.” The old ladies leave and one of them is in Ivan’s grip. Ivan maintains a strong grip on her and Keith said, “Who hired you?” The old lady said, “My heart is conking out. There is no need for me to tell you.” Her heart stops and she dies in Ivan’s grip.

The old lady is examined in a lab in the monastery and the same goes for the tips of the guns Keith cut off and samples of the bullets. Ivan and Keith are in the lab looking at the evidence. Augi enters the lab. Augi said, “Ivan. I am afraid that the Ultraverse mainland is no longer safe for you. I am sending you to this critically acclaimed security defense fighter that lives in a universe that is populated only by him and is mostly made of farmland. It is in an obscure section of the Ultraverse and it should not be discoverable by anyone. I only know about this universe because I have a personal connection with the owner of it.” Ivan said, “The universe has an owner?” Augi said, “It does. I already contacted him and he said he’s fine with you staying. Since this universe is to remain undiscovered by most, I cannot send anyone else with you. Keith will stay here and try to unravel this mystery.” Ivan said, “I guess I have no other choice.”

Ivan arrives at the large luxury mansion on a planet in a universe which is essentially the middle of nowhere. Ivan arrives at the door and the overly tall broad chined and burly protector dressed in a purple luxury business suit is in the foyer and lets Ivan in. Ivan said, “You are the...” The luxury suit man said, “I am Quamorous Kilch.” Ivan said, “Okay Quamorous.” Kilch said, “You will call me, Master Kilch.” Ivan said, “Ok.” Kilch said, “That’s enough backtalk from you, young man. You are lucky I am letting you stay with me. This is only so I can repay some debts I owe to your master Augi. You are safe here. All the walls are heavily guarded and I have the ability to know where everyone is at any given time. I always know where you are so if you slack off on any of your work, I will know.” Ivan said, “Okay. What do you mean by, ‘work’?” Kilch said, “You are a monk of the Ultraverse. That means you are supposed to serve and protect the Ultraverse. You will serve me by helping me clean this mansion and renovate it. I have redesigned the entire place and you are going to be doing all that for me.” Ivan said, “What makes you think I would be good at home renovations?” Kilch said, “Well, you are going to be doing the renovations. You are overly smart. I bet you can renovate this house perfectly.”

Keith, Safron, and Dirk are in the monastery lab and they look over the dead old lady. Keith views scans on her and the screen indicates there is something in her skull that is manmade. Keith said, “It looks like this old lady has something in her skull.” Keith takes out surgical tools and Safron and Dirk’s eyes go big. Keith removes the manmade component from the old lady’s head. It reads, “Yin-yangite tracker” on it. Safron said, “A yin-yangite tracker?” Dirk said, “They must have been tracking Ivan with that thing. Where would old ladies get something like that?” Keith said, “Someone gave them this. It looks like it was manufactured by some kind of army. Probably a top-secret project. Whoever made this did not want the anyone to know about it. There are no insignias or anything on it. It looks like it has a port to be connected to a computer.” Keith connects the tracker to the computer and a map of the entire Ultraverse is shown on the screen. It shows blinking dots and they are moving. Safron said, “What are those dots?” Keith said, “It is likely the other old ladies have these trackers built in them too. It is likely they can track each other with them or, maybe those are yin-yangites. They appear to be moving fast and they are moving through widely unexplored regions of the Ultraverse. It is likely to be the old ladies looking for Ivan.” Safron said, “Ivan is supposed to be safe where he is.” Keith said, “I would not count on that. These old ladies clearly have technology that can track yin-yangites and this is far beyond any tracking technology we have. It is already enough of a miracle that it can connect to our computers. These computers were modelled after the universe I came from and it is likely this tracker was built in a similar universe. There is another thing we can do.” Keith examines the gun tips he cut off and the bullets from the guns. Keith scans all the weapons with weapon scanners and the computer displays a list of stores in the Ultraverse that sell these kinds of weapons. Keith said, “We may be able to find out more about these old ladies if we can find out where their guns came from. It looks like there are quite a few stores that sell them.” Keith finds a photo of the old dead lady and some footage of the old ladies from before. Keith said, “We are going to be needing this if we are to locate the store they went to.”

Ivan lifts up heavy support beams and he places them in place. Ivan uses a bolting tool to bolt the beams into the floor. Ivan takes large wooden supports and he assembles them according to instructions. He is doing all this as Kilch sits back in a lawn chair and drinks a lemon drink. Ivan takes apart an existing wall and he places the new support wall in place. Ivan sets up supports and removes parts of the wall. It is nighttime now and Ivan has the living room completely empty and he barely got any of the renovations done. Ivan wipes sweat off his head. Ivan said, “Where are the bedrooms?” Kilch said, “I don’t think those instructions involve bedrooms.” Ivan said, “I have been working all day. I need to rest for a few hours at least.” Kilch said, “You are getting nothing until you finish those renovation plans. I am off to bed. I will see the finished product next morning.”

Ivan keeps working away and he sees the instructions show two people lifting a large support beam into place. Ivan lifts the beam and falls back. Ivan begins to get ticked at all this. Ivan gets visions of him getting thrown out of the mansion and getting killed by the old ladies. Ivan said, “I need to get this done or else I will end up dead.” Ivan forms into a yin-yang and he becomes extra strong all of a sudden and he does a job intended for a team of people. Ivan renovates the main room and it fits the blueprints. Ivan forms back into his normal self and a clock indicates it is time for Kilch to wake up. Kilch goes down the stairs in his purple silk pajamas and he sees Ivan’s job. The main room now has a large fountain a giant fireplace, a sculpture of Kilch, and bizarre paintings on the walls. Kilch said, “What the hell is this?” Ivan said, “You gave me the blueprints right here and I followed them. It is a miracle how I managed to pull this off. This was supposed to have been done by a team of people and I built all of this by myself.” Kilch said, “Did you read the instructions? It said to have the dividing wall 2.5 millimeters from the edge of the baseboard. You placed it at 3.5 millimeters.” Ivan said, “I could not give it 2.5 millimeters because the wiring of the house would not properly fit into the proper wall cavities.” Kilch said, “That’s it. I am done with you. You are going to get killed by those old ladies.” Ivan said, “Augi trusted you to protect me. He says you are an excellent fighter.” Kilch said, “Screw Augi.”

Keith, Safron, and Dirk go to a weapons store on a brightly lit street. Safron said, “We have been to over fifty weapons stores in the past day. Is this going to be the one?” Keith said, “We must visit each one. Ivan’s safety is at stake.” Dirk said, “What if this is a wild goose chase?” Keith said, “This isn’t. I know it isn’t.” Keith goes to the front counter and speaks with the clerk. Keith shows the clerk the bullets, the gun tips, and the photos shot of the old ladies. Keith said, “Did any old ladies like the ones in this picture come into this store and buy weapons that match these bullets and gun tips?” The clerk said, “Indeed there were.” Keith said, “I need to know more about them. They are involved in a plot to assassinate a valued member of the Ultraverse monks.” The clerk said, “These old ladies came in with a large pile of cash and they bought my state-of-the-art sniper rifles. They also bought my new exclusive armor that is supposed to be harder than uranium and can pretty much pierce most armors that are not made of the same material. This material is exclusive to my store so you can only really beat someone with my armor by wearing my armor. I also have this new armor that just came out today. It is slightly stronger than the armor I sold to those old ladies.” Keith said, “I will buy that new armor. I will have three orders of it.”

Keith, Safron, and Dirk are in the monk transport ship and they suit up in their new armor. Safron said, “We should be equally matched to those old ladies now.” Dirk said, “I am going to teach them a jolly good lesson they will never forget.” Keith takes control and he pilots the ship out into Ultraverse space. Keith sees the dots on the tracker are all grouped together. Keith said, “All the dots are close together and they appear to be travelling through Ultraverse space. They appear to be in front of us now.” Keith sees a transport in front of them. The old ladies are controlling the transport and they see the monk transport is behind them. The lead old lady said, “Gradus, activate our rear weapons.” Gradus activates the rear weapons and they fire volleys of ballistic plasma shots at the monk transport. Keith pilots the transport and he makes it dodge the shots but it gets hit by a few of the plasma shots. Safron and Dirk get to the weapon controls and they fire laser blasts and proton torpedoes at the old ladies. The old ladies dodge the attacks and they fly up in a loop and fly downwards and barely miss grazing the side of the monk transport. The proton torpedoes hit the side of the monk transport and it spins out of control. Keith, Safron, and Dirk attempt to stabilize the transport and they make it follow the old ladies which fly off into the distance. Keith said, “I am still tracking them.”

Kilch has Ivan pack up his stuff and he kicks Ivan out of the mansion. Ivan is on the front porch and Ivan said, “You must reconsider.” Kilch said, “I am done with you.”

No wonder why Karen hates you.” Ivan turns around and he sees the old ladies are on his yard and they are armed with sniper rifles and sharp blades. Ivan turns around and bashes on the door and Ivan yells, “They are here. They have come for me.” The lead old lady said, “Well, I’d be. Isn’t that Kilch’s place?” Another old lady said, “Doesn’t that guy have twelve bathtubs and the best spa in the Ultraverse?” Another old lady said, “It looks like we got two for the price of one. Kilch may be worth more.” The old ladies begin firing at Kilch’s mansion. They walk to the front of the mansion and they smash through the front window. They see Kilch sitting there drinking something. The lead old lady said, “Kilch is ours.” Kilch said, “No one defeats the almighty, Kilch.” Kilch presses a button on the wall and it shows where his high-tech armor is supposed to be and it is gone. Kilch said, “What the...” Ivan has Kilch’s armor and he puts it on.” Kilch said, “You.” The old ladies beat up Kilch. Kilch fights against the old ladies using martial arts moves. The old ladies overpower Kilch and they shoot him and kill him. Ivan watches this and he said, “Serves him right.”

The old ladies see Ivan and they begin to fight against Ivan. Their attacks don’t do much against Ivan’s armor. Ivan takes out a sword and he duels against the old ladies’ sharp blades. The old ladies knock the sword out of Ivan’s grip and they grab hold of him and take off his helmet. The lead old lady said, “Say your prayers.” She takes the sharp blade out and then, Keith, Safron, and Dirk run into the scene. They jump on the old ladies and they pierce their armor with their new armor. Keith fights off two of the old ladies and leaves them incapacitated. Dirk uses his enhanced agility to smash one of the old ladies into the ground. Safron pierces and destroys the armor on two of them and she places her skateboard down and makes them slide on it and they get smashed into the mansion. All the old ladies have been defeated. Ivan gets up and he said, “Thanks.” Safron said, “I would do anything for the love of my life.” Safron kisses Ivan. Keith presses commands on his watch and a team of Ultraverse SWAT members show up and they handcuff and arrest the old ladies. Keith confronts the lead old lady and Keith said, “May I ask, why do you want Ivan dead?” The lead old lady said, “We are valued members of our community. Despite that, they make us pay more taxes and fees that we could not afford to take care of ourselves anymore. The Asterix Empire paid us a large sum of money and let us buy whatever armor and weapons we wanted and they said they would give us more when we return Ivan dead to them as an egg. This was the beginning of their invasion of the main Ultraverse.” Keith said, “I guess this invasion of theirs has failed.” The old lady said, “I’m sure they have more plans up their sleeves.” Keith said, “They always do.” The old ladies get taken away by the SWAT team.
